thiana, Ky., September, 12th, 1870, cratic Central Committee, for the rison county, in said Convention.

The Political Future.

That sterling and able Democratic paper, The Banner of the South, speaks as follows in regard to the political future of our country:

"The political outlook presents little that is cheering to the patriot.
The Fifteenth Amendment has been adopted by fraud, and proclaimed a law by force. Processions have per-ambulated the streets of our cities, with drums beating, banners flying and torches burning. Hosannas have filled the air, and voices have grown hoarse in shouting them. But all these noisy demonstrations have not made wrong right, or given the sanctity of law to an unlawful act.
They only seemed to deepen the gloom which already shrouded the great heart of the people, and to make all the sadder the saddening memories which cluster about the unhappy present.

"Still there is some hope left.
True, it is but a feeble one; and yet its faintly glimmering rays may grow brighter as time advances, until, perhaps, its rays may illumine the whole land with brightness, and bring gladness to all who love liberty better than office and gold. The recent votes in Congress show with unmistakable plainness that there is some conservatism left even in that corrupt and degenerate tribunal. Its action upon the Georgia bill shows that the extremists have lost some of their power at least; while other acts show equally as plainly that the rights of the States are not yet entirely ignored.

"These may, indeed, be but 'straws' —but they must also be 'straws' which show the way the wind is blowing; and which give some evidence of returning reason on the part of those who have for so long a time abandoned themselves to the evil passions of the hour. And while signs like these are observable in the political horizon, we find some people in the South anxious or at least willing, not only to submit to the new order of things, but to give it strength and permanence by their own voluntary acts. This is the darkest and saddest view of the picture. In what startling contrast with this unwise and even wicked conduct is the patriotic boldness with which some Northern Democrats and some Northern journals condemn the 'Fifteenth Amendment' and the results of its enforcement.
This is what the New York Day-Book says about it, and we applaud the sentiments and re-echo the advice which it gives to our people.

"Down with the Fifteenth Amendment! Let the cry go forth, resistance to the Fifteenth Amendment at all hazards! There must be a stop put to the despotic unconstitutional acts of the Mongrel party, and it had better begin now than be postponed an hour longer. Nigger voters at the polls, the sacred right of the ballot-box, belonging only to the superior being, can not, and must not, be permitted. Organize White Men's Clubs. Memorialize your State Legislature. Protest against and forbid the exercise of this great right by an inferior race. It is unnatural; negroes or Chinamen can not be allowed to meddle with the white government of the United States.

California has led off in this protest.
Fall in line, people of the Atlantic States! Down with the Fifteenth Amendment!"

Negro Suffrage.

The Radical papers in this State recognize the fact—too patent to be ignored—that the best men everywhere are disgusted with the doctrine that the negro is the equal of the white man. Hence their frantic appeals to the negroes to "vote solid"; to "remember their friends," and to be "true to the great principles of the Republican party."

There is no necessity for this extraordinary zeal. The Democratic party is not bidding for the vote of the negroes. It proposes to adhere to its old-fashioned doctrine that this country is to be governed by white men. It can see no strength to the Republic in making a race just released from bondage an element of the governing power. All the fire-sight and calm, deliberate thought of the best minds of the country are needed to keep the machinery of a Republic in good running order.

With a territory as vast as ours—with so many diverse notions as to measures of public policy—with so many conflicting interests—with thirty-seven wheels running within one great wheel—the wisest statesmanship is required to preserve the essence of republican institutions.

And now if to the class of our rulers, men are to be introduced who are confessedly in a condition of tutelage, and they are to have a controlling voice in the making and administration of the laws, what hope can be entertained for the permanent happiness and prosperity of the nation? Politicians may hoot at this idea as they certainly will, and go on struggling for the votes of the colored people, simply to extend their lease of power, but the thoughtful men will see in it an element of weakness which, in after years, may either permanently disserve States that are now only jarring and discordant, or that may cause a nation, desponding of the success of republican institutions, to fly to a different form of government. To prevent such disastrous results, the Democratic party insists upon the doctrine, that white men must rule America.

It makes its appeal to the white men of the country. It is high time that conservative men, heretofore identified with the Republican party, who were always hostile to negro suffrage, and who, if an opportunity had been presented them, would have voted the Fifteenth Amendment down by overwhelming majorities—it is high time for such men to sever the leading-strings of party, and cast their votes with the men who are in favor of white men ruling America.

Let the issue be distinctly defined and fairly and squarely fought. Let Democrats disdain to truckle to this policy of procuring negro votes. Let them stand firmly upon the platform which has been their boast and pride for many years, that this government was made by white men—Let protection—the utmost protection—be afforded to the negro in the enjoyment of the rights which properly belong to him under the laws of the land, but let him not be put into positions where he is to govern white men. Democrats and all who love republican institutions, write high upon your banners the words, "WHITE MEN MUST RULE AMERICA."—Rockville (Md.) Sentinel.

John Young Brown for Governor

A Voice from Louisville.
(To the Editor of the Courier-Journal.) Where is the man in the Democratic party in Kentucky who presents so many elements of strength as that young Tribune of the people, John Young Brown? The Representative elect to Congress at different times from two separate districts, he would come before the people acquainted personally to almost every voter in both of them. The Elizabethtown and Henderson districts both claim him, and both are proud of his commanding intellect, his superb eloquence, his chivalric bearing and his high hearted manhood. But his fame is not confined to them.— There is not a precinct in the State where he is not known personally or by reputation, and spoken of as a Kentuckian in whom all feel a pride.
Put him upon the hustings and the week would ring from every mountain side and valley in Kentucky such as it has not been known to sound since the days of Clay and Crittenden and Marshall and Men-fee and Breckinridge and Rowan.

But Kentucky owes it to him to vindicate him against the malignant antagonism of the Radical power in Congress. When she can do so to a much-injured Representative, and resent an insult to her own proud self committed through his person it is her bounden duty to do it. Three years ago Mr. Brown was elected to Congress by 6,196 majority. Congress slammed its doors in his face, and malignantly declined to open them to his admission. A well known political history of the times, referring to the transaction, says: "Mr.

Brown was a rising young statesman of extraordinary powers. Radicalism had felt his blows, and in his person they had an opportunity to indulge a double resentment—that of political hostility to him and malignant hatred for his people and State. At the beginning of the war he favored the position of neutrality, which Kentucky had assumed, and had written a letter warmly in opposition to the contribution of men or arms to the subjugation of the South. At the time when his speeches were delivered, which were the pretext for his rejection, he was the Union candidate for Congress in his district upon the basis of the Constitution. He was also a Democrat and an unyielding foe to the Constitution, and was in his last canvass one of the most effective orators against their machinations and these being his offenses, the rights of his constituents were violated to visit punishment upon him and to spite them for the 6,196 majority by which they had sent him to Congress."

Kentuckians, this is the record given of the facts at the time by an impartial historian. It is the record of a gross and outrageous insult to yourselves and your State. It was intended to heap contumely upon you and to brand your brows with degradation. It was to show how far Radical malice and presumption dare go to prove their contempt of the manhood of the sons of the dark and bloody ground. Your time has come to resent this indignity. You will show your evasion of an opportunity if you fail to make John Young Brown your next Governor.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

On next Tuesday the democracy of this the 6th Congressional District will meet at Walton, in Boone county, next Tuesday, the 27th inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress.

A RAIL ROAD MASS MEETING.

The Friends of the Cincinnati and Southern Rail Road, in Kentucky, will meet at Lexington, on October 10th, where speeches will be made by some of our leading men. Every body should go who desires to see the country prosper.

RED RIVER PEOPLE.

We have been watching the Red River people ever since they made an attempt to "keep house" by themselves and since they snapped their fingers defiantly in the face of Queen Victoria and her society, and find them just now in a disorganized and wandering condition. On the approach and occupancy of that country by the British troops, Riel, the Revolutionary governor, with most of his followers emigrated to United States soil. Those persons, who remained and who were concerned with Riel have been arrested and imprisoned. Of course Riel will do all the mischief he can, but that won't be much.

ROME.

The Italians are now in arms and moving on to Rome. They are commanded by Cadorna, and in their path to the eternal city, blood is found. The people of Italy, as well as those of France are determined to be free and we hope they will never cease to struggle until the banner of Freedom shall float from every hill-top. His Holiness, the Pope will be compelled hereafter to devote his entire attention to spiritual affairs, and not so much to temporal, which will no doubt be a welcome relief to His Highness. Off with a few more of the heads of these potentates, and then, by St. Paul, we will have more peace and less blood-shed and sorrow in the world.

THE SIXTH KENTUCKY DISTRICT.

At a meeting of the Democracy of the county of Robertson, held in the Court-House at Mt. Olivet, on Monday, the 19th day of September, 1870, it being County Court day, on motion of Dr. E. M. Taylor, S. T. Hamilton, Esq., was called to the chair, and C. C. Davis appointed Secretary.

The Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee announced that the meeting was called for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the Walton Convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth Congressional District of Kentucky.

On motion a committee of one from each precinct in the county was selected by the chair to report back to the Convention a list of delegates to attend said Convention. The Committee reported the names of the following delegates to said Convention, viz: W. V. Prather, A. S. Miller, John McDowell, Nimrod Cummer, A. R. Woodward, James C. Humble, W. W. Vanhook, E. M. Taylor, Joseph Duncan, N. F. Overbey, S. G. Rogers, James Anderson, Alternates, Perry Wheeler, John Rice, Stark Wheeler, George H. B. Thompson, John S. Henson, Charles Bramell, S. T. Hamilton, S. W. Craigm, S. C. Clarke, Neil Ballingall, Nelson Steed, Madison Newman.

On motion, it was resolved by the Convention that the delegates from the county of Robertson be instructed to vote as a unite in the Walton Convention for Thomas L. Jones.

Census Taking.

After the 25th of September, 1870 the labors of the United States Marshalls, will to a certain extent be finished, and if there are any individuals in Harrison county, who have not been listed, it is their duty as good citizens to report themselves and the number in their families to Mr. Dickey—one of the U. S. Marshalls.

THE HARRISON FAIR.

Our Fair came off last week, and we present to our readers the premium list and to whom the awards were made. This meeting of the Association was one of the largest we have ever attended, as well as one of the most agreeable. Our President, Mr. J. H. Gray, assisted by the Director, adjudicated affairs in a manner most satisfactory to all who offered for premiums at our Fair. The amount of cattle, sheep and hogs shown was larger than heretofore; and the show of horse stock never has been equalled. The Ladies adorned Floral Hall splendidly with their work, and furnished and spread bountiful dinners for the stranger; in fact we heard a general expression of satisfaction from all quarters.

The crowd in attendance was very large, and with the exception of one day fair and pleasant.

Mr. Good, on Pike st., is the agent for the Singer Sewing Machine. It was exhibited at the Hall and took the premium over all others. It is worthy of it.

Dr. J. J. Adair took a premium on Native Wine. It is an excellent article.

Mrs. N. B. Wilson sent a loaf of splendid Wheat Bread for exhibition for which she received a premium.

Concert in Cynthiana.

Orphan's Home, Lauderdale, Mississippi. Our readers, says the Louisville Courier-Journal, especially those in this city, will remember the touching appeals of "Mrs. Reed and others" soon after the war in behalf of the Mississippi Orphan's Home and the liberal contributions which followed from our citizens. We learn that thirty of these little wanderers, under Rev. A. D. Trimble, arrived in the city yesterday, and are enjoying the unrestrained hospitality of our leading citizens. Mr. Trimble is desirous of putting the institution on a permanent basis, and proposes to give a concert (not a show) for that purpose. Mr. Trimble is a Christian gentleman, his mission one of the tenderest benevolence, and we hope our citizens will yield a liberal reward to his charity moving arguments.

The concert will be given in this city on Tuesday Evening 27th, and arrangements will be made by Rev. S. L. Helm, who will be here in a few days for that purpose.

A lot of new advertisements are unavoidably left. Notice shall appear in our next issue.

Large Potatoes.

Robt. Scott, Esq., has laid upon our table a sweet potato which weighs five pounds and a-half. It is a large Yam.

Shooting Affray.

The Danville Advocate says: That last Tuesday evening Frank Schoofen was shot by E. R. Price, at Shelby City, and died on Wednesday night. Some months ago they had a difficulty, and exchanged shots without effect, and were put under bond to keep the peace.

County Court Day at Georgetown.

Last Monday was Court day in Georgetown, and A. W. Lydick, Auctioneer, informs us that there was but little stock on the market. About 200 head of cattle mostly inferior, selling low. There was some inquiry for good feeding steers; a few mules, yearlings and colts offered but few sold. Good Horses sold at fair prices; plugs low. It is very dry in the vicinity of Georgetown, and much complaint is made among the farmers about stock water and grass.

Covington Items.

We clip the following from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

In the contest for the Congressional nomination in the Sixth Kentucky District Mr. Jones claims 142 instructed votes against 117 for Arthur, with Grant county yet to hear from—19 votes. In a vote at Petersburg the other day Arthur received 9, Jones 78.

Mr. Frank Woods, the young man who was knocked down and robbed on the Bank Lick Turnpike, about two miles from the city, on Sunday night, has been speechless ever since the occurrence. He received a very heavy blow on the head from a slung shot in the hands of the villain who attacked him.

Town Talk.

The town is quiet and reduced to business and settlements since the Fair.

We are pleased to announce that no difficulties occurred in Cynthiana during the Fair.

The Hops at the Smith House last week were good, and well attended. Beauty and Chivalry were there.

The Criminal Court for this county commenced last Monday in this city. Judge Boyd on the bench, and the Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. Duncan, is on hand and attending to business.

The nights are longer than the days in Cynthiana.

Paws-paws are for sale in Cynthiana.

The police court is lively.

Dead Beats—people who never pay what the owe—are not as plentiful in Cynthiana as in other places.

The Germantown Fair is in operation this week.

Wm. Magee has gone back to Kansas City.

T. V. Dills has removed to St. Louis.

M. D. Whitteker, better known as "My Position," is making apple brandy of the best kind.

The market house question is being discussed in town.

The roof of the Methodist Church is being put on.

The Fifty-Cent Store has left town and the house is for rent.

The Harrison and Cynthiana people have some two million dollars worth of whisky locked up in store-houses.

Mr. Alexander, a prominent lawyer of Paris, is in Cynthiana.

Falmouth was well represented at our Fair last week.

Licking River is low.

Shooting inside of the corporation of Cynthiana after dark is too common. Can it be stopped?

Ed. Hensley, Esq., of Frankfort, is in Cynthiana.

During our Fair a young man from Paris, named Henry, about 18 years of age, concluded as everybody had gone to the Fair to take a look through a few of the homes abandoned during the day, and see what he could find. The first house he looked through belonged to Monroe Devers, who was in a field near by, but his wife was at the Fair. Henry dressed himself in Devers's Sunday clothes and finding no money, started for another house. He had not been gone long before Mr. Devers went home and there found that a thief had been there, and he immediately followed in his track and found the rascal at John Reneker's house, going through the business as at D's house. The thief was called to order by Mr. D., who stood at the door with a hammer under his sleeve when the thief approached and took him by the throat which held he released as soon as he was slightly tapped on the head with that hammer. Mr. D. then bound him and brought him to Cynthiana, and lodged him with Mr. Webb. He should be returned a trade.

W. W. Kimbrough, Esq., has been appointed Internal Revenue Gauger for 6th District.

An exact and perfect picture of that good man, Bishop Forsythe, was displayed in Floral Hall. It was painted by our excellent friend Eshelman. We know of none in this country who can do better.

Mrs. Cummins of this city, had her pockets picked some two weeks since. She lost sixty dollars and some valuable papers which she desires returned, as they are of no value to others.

The Lexington Fair begins next week.

The daughter of a poet master in Harrison county, ran off during the Fair and married a stranger, whom she had fallen in love with. We hope she has done well.

[For the Cynthiana News.]
SHREVEPORT LA., Sept. 6th, 1870.

DEAR MRS. M.—I will again indite you a few items—which I hope will not prove uninteresting to your numerous readers. I will not write of the Napoleon dynasty which has sunk in endless night, and the once boasted glory of France departed—alas! the lilies have paled before the black eagles of Prussia. The star of Napoleon we fear has set in dark night.

COTTON.—No new developments have been made relative to the cotton crops. Our Planters report the prospects for both cotton and corn good—though in some localities, the worm has made its appearance—as yet no serious damage has been sustained. Experience Planters say on the uplands there will be considerably above an average crop raised. My knowledge of planting being limited, I base my report upon the statement of others.

POLITICAL.—For the first time since an order for the removal of a portion of the municipal officers by King Warmouth, a little excitement prevails in regard to our approaching election for Congress and the Legislature. The Democratic ticket of the Parish is a strong one, and it is hooves every true lover of the Constitution as handed us by our forefathers, to go to work and endeavor to secure its success. There is here—as in every portion of the South—fawning sycophants carpet buggers—theatrical scum of God's creation, dressing the negro—endeavoring to use him as an instrument for the accomplishment of their selfish and hellish designs; but the negroes here have finally been aroused to a sense of their situation and duty—they know their friends, and cheerfully support the Democratic party. They have realized the fact that the Republican party is organized on the principles of lying, rascality and thieving.

CITY, &c.—The health of the city was never better. The weather continues warm and clear. The thermometer went up to a considerable height—"no body hurt." Red River is declining slowly, with good navigation to all points. New boats for this trade are arriving weekly from Louisville and Cincinnati.

During the past year there have been three hundred and thirty-five arrivals of Steamboats from New Orleans and St. Louis, aggregating a hull tonnage of about sixty thousand and three hundred tons. The up-freight consist of Western produce, generally Merchandise, Railroad iron, &c.—down freight, Texas cattle, cotton, hides, &c. Westward the course of enterprise takes its way.

More anon, C. C. R.

A Mothers Influence.

The life of Hon. T. H. Benton contains the following beautiful testimony to his mother's influence over him both in childhood and manhood. Mark it well, all ye whom it may concern:

"My mother asked me never to use tobacco: I have never touched it from that time to the present day. She asked me not to gamble, and I have never gambled; I can not tell who is losing in the games that are being played. She admonished me, too, against hard drinking and whatever capacity for endurance I have at present, and whatever usefulness I have attained through life, I attribute to having complied with her pious and curious wishes. When I was seven years old she asked me not to drink, and then I made a resolution of total abstinence; and that I have adhered to it through all time, I owe to my mother."

To Teachers.

Examination of Teachers of the Common-Schools will take place in the Academy, in Cynthiana, on the last Saturday of this month.
